

AccessNOW™ Stock

Inventory Control Solutions – Industrial Vending

AccessNOW Stock is an innovative, tamper-proof and maintenance-free industrial vending machine that provides the lowest-cost and highest-capacity vending solution in the world. The proprietary design replaces traditional coiled, carousel or scale machines and eliminates thousands of costly mechanisms, motors and moving parts, which drastically decreases the chance of a breakdown and increases storage space by 50% to 75%.

Features:

- Secure – motion-sensing technology monitors and records all user/product activity
- Reliable – 3-year warranty on all parts
- Accommodates a wide variety of products, from gloves to batteries to replacement parts, etc.
- Easy to refill and reconfigure – no fixed locations for products
- Doesn't require vendable packaging
- Charges battery-powered tools
- Doesn't lose power, even if your building does
- Automatically notifies you of electronic transactions
- Tracks asset check-in/check-out and expiry dates
- Reports tracking to job, equipment or cost center
- Transactions can be monitored from anywhere in the world
- Special self-attaching shelf dividers to keep product organized
- Special magnetized, corrosion-proof bins for smaller products
- Spill containment shelves
